Direct from London to Washington (Other airports on request)

9th – 13th June 2019 (Sunday – Thursday)

Join us on this once in a lifetime opportunity to gather with fellow Wrens from the UK, USA and Canada for this unique pre- Centenary Celebration break in West Virginia

Day 1) Make your own way to London Heathrow* airport for our flight to Washington (Dullas Airport). On arrival your transfer awaits to The Bavarian Inn. This evening meet your host Carol Asam and fellow Wrens for a welcome gathering and BBQ (weather permitting)

Days 2 & 3) Enjoy a leisurely buffet breakfast . You are then free to take part in an optional excursion/activity (Payable locally) or just relax in the infinity pool or take in the wonderful surroundings. In the evenings enjoy a special style dinner which will take place outdoors (weather permitting.)

Day 4) After breakfast enjoy more free time or join another of our optional planned excursions (Payable locally). Tonight tuck into a farewell dinner consisting of a 'Taste of Europe' amongst scattered food stations and share more stories of times gone by.

Day 5) After a final breakfast your transport will be on hand to take you to the airport for your return flight. Alternatively you can extend your stay on a 'Room Only' basis at the Bavarian Inn or its sister hotel the Mimslyn Inn() from £119 per room per night (Full details on application on a choice of optional trips to explore the region which include the chance to stay at the Mimslyn Inn, which is also steeped in history and located within the rolling hills of the Shenandoah Valley.
NOTE: A list of optional trips will be published and pre-bookable shortly. Flights are also available from other UK airports.

The Bavarian Inn Is owned by retired Wren Carol Asam (nee Cranstone) and her family and has won many awards. It is located in Shepherdstown, W.V. set on a bluff overlooking the Potomac River.
